Your request which was received by the Office of the Chief Justice refers.

The Judicial Conduct Committee (Committee) postponed the appeal hearing to its next meeting scheduled for 30 October 2025. The Committee considered it necessary that certain facts be investigated before the matter could be finalised. The names of the members who decided the appeal will be reflected in the ruling once it has been issued.

Kind regards,

6. APPEAL REMEDIES.

6.1. Kindly note that you have the right to appeal to the Internal Authority, who is the Minister within 60 days of the decision. If you are still not satisfied with the decision of the Minister, you may either submit a complaint to the Information Regulator or make an application to a Court of Law for relief.

6.2. Section 74(1)(a) “A requester may lodge an internal appeal against a decision of the information officer of a public body referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of “public body” in section 1(a):

(a) to refuse a request for access; or

(b) taken in terms of section 22, 26(1) or 29(3),

in relation to that requester with the relevant authority”.

6.3. In terms of Section 77A (1) “A requester or third party referred to in section 74 may only submit a complaint to the Information Regulator in terms of this section after that requester or third party has exhausted the internal appeal procedure against a decision of the information officer of a public body provided for in section 74”.

6.4. The internal appeal must be lodged within 60 days after the decision is taken and or if notices are applicable within 30 days after the notice is given to the third Party. The third party notice is not applicable in your case so you have 60 days to appeal by completing form 4 (available on request from us or downloadable from our website or on Information Regulator’s website) and send it Nphakola@judiciary.org.za after which the appeal together with reason and other relevant information if any shall be submitted to the Minister of justice to consider the appeal within 30 days after the internal appeal is received by him or within such other period depending on whether notices are given or representations are made, otherwise the appeal shall be regarded as having been dismissed if no decision is made within the prescribed time period.

6.5. The complaint to the Regulator or application to Court may be lodged within 180 days of the decision on internal appeal by completing form 5 (available on request from us or downloadable on Information Regulator’s website) and submitting it directly to the Information Regulator.

6.6. The Application to Court is in terms of the rules of Court, Rule 55 for Magistrate’s Court and Rule 6 for High court and rules are available on request or downloadable on our website.

Signed at Midrand this 28th day of August 2025

Adv. Nelson Phakola

Deputy Information Officer
